

Tres miniaturas

Diana Arismendi

Universidad Simón Bolívar, Venezuela

Escritas entre mayo y junio del 2020, los títulos de estas miniaturas para piano solo corresponden a los días específicos de mi confinamiento.

52/53, compuesta entre el 4 y el 5 de mayo. Escrita a solicitud de Marisa Muñoz López, es una pieza simple, simple como nuestros días. Con pocas ideas —las pocas que pueden caber en 1 minuto, que se repiten, como se repiten los días que vemos pasar—. Pensada a dos voces, corresponden a los dos que me acompañaban en esos días. Las dinámicas nunca van más allá del mf, tal como las voces que me rodeaban, consonantes, o deliciosamente disonantes, siempre tranquilas. Esta miniatura emerge del silencio y rápidamente regresa a él...

80/81, compuesta entre el 1 y 2 de junio. Cuatro células provenientes de las palabras 'ochenta, eighty, y uno & one' son el material sobre el que escribo una pieza activa, nerviosa y extrovertida, que plasma los sentimientos de incertidumbre y desasosiego que el largo encierro, sin perspectivas claras, me causan. Las ideas, como en 52/53, son simples, pero la expresión es diametralmente distinta y se desenvuelve en el mundo sonoro atonal que naturalmente me acompaña. Dos cantos de pájaros, mis propias aves, interfieren con discreción. Esta miniatura emerge de la incertidumbre y rápidamente regresa a ella...

99/100, compuesta entre el 20 y 21 junio, cierra un ciclo de ideas fugaces. Esta tercera y última pieza es meditativa, explora el lleno y el vacío de días que se repiten, días deshabitados y saturados. Días de tenso tedio en el que el tiempo pasa muy despacio y los días muy deprisa. Esta miniatura emerge del vacío y rápidamente regresa a él...

A Marisa Muñoz López, y a Elena, siempre a Elena
